

and further answering said paragraph says:

That Louis Loats, the brother of the testator, died on March 24, <sup>1881</sup>~~1879~~, leaving surviving him, two sons, namely, (1) Louis Loats and (2) John Loats.

(i) That the last named Louis Loats, died on January 26, 1916, leaving surviving him as his only heirs at law, seven children, namely, (a) Charles Loats, (b) Horatio Loats, (c) Howard H. Loats, (d) Matie E. Gettier, (e) Minerva Witter, (f) Agnes Dull and (g) Florence L. Essom.

(a) That the said Charles Loats departed this life in 1952, leaving surviving him, as his only heir at law, a widow, Irene Loats, who resides at Manchester, Maryland, and no issue.

(b) That the said Horatio Loats died on or about December 8, 1940, leaving surviving him three children, namely, Margaret Loats Simpson, Lloyd Loats and Martin Loats, as his only heirs at law; that the said Margaret Simpson died on or about March 7, 1955, leaving surviving her as her only heir at law, a son, Joseph Simpson, who resides at 1609 East 32nd Street, Baltimore, Maryland; that the said Lloyd Loats resides at 1 Village Road, Pikesville, Baltimore County, Maryland, and that the said Martin Loats has been unheard of for more than eight years, his last known address being in the State of Tennessee; and that the said Martin Loats has one daughter, namely, June L. Roberts, who resides at 4118 Buckingham Road, Baltimore - 7, Maryland.

(c) That the said Howard H. Loats resides at Manchester, Maryland.

(d) That the said Matie E. Gettier is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and resides at Hanover, Pennsylvania.

*Amended in open Court
J. T. I.
May 7, 1955.*